Adela / O Hayat Benim

Description:

Two sisters understand loving each other differently. Adela is willing to give up everything for her sister, while for Andreea, everything that Adela owns is hers... including her life.

One day, they find out one of them is a rich man's daughter, and her life can follow an extraordinary destiny. The mother of the two girls, Nuti, a miserly and wicked woman but full of charm and humor, seizes the opportunity to send her real daughter, Andreea, into the world of the rich as the daughter of media mogul Paul Andronic. Andreea assumes the identity of her sister Adela and moves from the slums to a luxurious villa in Snagov. Andreea believes that her new family will give her everything she ever wanted. She is capable of anything to keep her new social position, including lying to her "sister," Adela, the natural heiress.

SACRIFICIUL

SERIES

Sacrificiul / Sacrifice

Description:

Based on historical facts, Sacrifice tells the story of three extraordinary women from different backgrounds. Separated a long time ago, these women are blood sisters who are reunited by accident by their children. A secret affair threatens to disturb their fragile peace.

The head of the Oprea family is Stefan, a man with an impressive fortune, no scruples, and a life dominated by lies, his main interest being money. Eva, his wife, who married him relatively late, is an entirely different person and of opposite character. Along with Stefan, three boys have entered her life, one of them a newborn. The children's mother died when the last son was born, and Eva has strived to be a good mother, even though she is a stepmother.

The Oprea boys are Andrei, Amza and Alin. With opposite characters, life will take them by surprise and hit them in their weakest points. Andrei is the father's favorite, although he sees life differently from Stefan. Andrei is a very handsome, intelligent conqueror, and, like any young man his age, he makes mistakes. Whether or not he learns from his mistakes remains to be seen in the series.

Narcisa salbatică / Wild Daffodils

Description:

Narcisa is a young girl living in a small village in Romania. Her parents named her after a flower because the daffodils in the garden filled the whole house with their fragrance. After the death of her parents, when she was only four years old, Narcisa was raised by her grandmother, a simple, hard-working woman from the countryside. Narcisa started working when she was 16, and because of this, she could never go to school. She practically can't read or write. Her life changes the day she witnesses a terrible accident. A car rolls into a hazardous area. Before the vehicle explodes, Narcisa manages to save the man and children, but the woman dies. After barely recovering from his wife's death, Tudor wants to do something for the girl who saved his children from death. Meanwhile, in the village, Narcissa is wrongly accused of murder and ends up behind bars. Tudor, who cannot forget the girl who heroically saved him from death, decides to offer her his unconditional help. Like a good lawyer, he provides his professional services as a defense attorney and obtains the girl's release in exchange for a strange bail: he will have to be her legal guardian.
